

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, December 23. 1714.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 22.

Rome, November 28.

ON the 21st Instant the Pope gave Audience to his Ministers, and afterwards Cardinal Paracciani took Leave of him to go to his Bishoprick of Sinigaglia. The same Evening the Corps of Prince Alexander Sobieski was removed. He made no written Will, but by Word of Mouth declared in the Presence of the Cardinals Nulucci and Sacripante, and the Guardian of the Capuchins, that he left his Estate to the Queen his Mother and the two Princes James and Constantine his Brothers, to whom he recommended the Care of his Servants. He declared also that he desired to make Profession of the Rule of the Capuchins, and made it accordingly a little before his Death into the Hands of the Guardian, and ordered that he should be buried without Pomp in the Habit of a Capuchin. Although that Prince had not seen the Pope during his Pontificate, because his Holyness made a Difficulty of treating him in the same Manner with Ambassadors from crowned Heads, which he pretended to, his Holyness notwithstanding, touched with pious Sentiments to the deceased, was willing to give him the Honours at his Death which he refused while Alive, and accordingly the Pope ordered that the Body should be embalmed, and exposed upon a Bed of State clothed with the Cloak and Collar of the Order of the Holy Ghost (whereof he was a Knight). On the 20th Order was given to all the Officers of the Pope's Household and to the Musicians of the Chappel, to assist at the convoy which was made in the beginning of the next Night with the same Ceremonies as had been used to Queen Christina of Sweden, and since to the Prince of Monaco Ambassador extraordinary of France. The Body being disposed upon a Bed was carried upon a great Machine surrounded by the Swiss Guards, their Captain being on Horseback, and was followed by the Cursers with their Maces, the Prelates, and other Officers. They were preceded by a great Number of Capuchins, after whom came the Minims of St. Andrew de la Fratte, in which Parish the Palace of the deceased was situate, and the Fraternity of Stigmatales, with divers others in the Habits of Penitents, with Wax Candles in their Hands. The Procession passed under the Windows of Montecavallo, where the Pope looked out, and said the De Profundis while it halted: Afterwards they continued the March to the Church of the Capuchins, which was hung with Mourning, and there the Corps was deposited. On the 22d it was exposed on a magnificent Bier, and Mass was celebrated by the Sieur Nicolo Spinola, Auditor of the Chamber, who was formerly Nuncio in Poland, assisted by four Bishops who made the Incensements, and it was sung by the Musick of the Chappel. After the Ceremony the Corps was dressed in the Capuchin Habit, and buried in that Manner in their Church. All the Expence of this pompous Funeral was born by the Apostolick Chamber. The same Day the Sieur Duodo, Ambassador of Venice, had an Audience of the Pope. A printed Sentence of Excommunication is set up in Publick, against the Judge and other Officers of the Court of the Monarchy of Sicily, for having caused the Grand Vicar of the Bishop of Lipari to depart the Kingdom. The Pope sent for the 24 Superiour Generals of the Religious Orders, and ordered them under severe Penalty to cause this Interdict to be observed in the Churches of their Orders in Sicily, and to keep them shut up in execution of the Decree published last Week. We have since heard that the Archbishop of Messina, who put it in execution to the utmost of his Power, is dead suddenly. The 23d which was the Anniversary Day of the Pope's Creation, who then entered into the 15th Year of his Papacy, a Chappel was held at Montecavallo, and Don Fabricio Colonna, Eldest Son of the late Constable, aged 15 Years, assisted at Soglio. After the Mass the Pope received the usual Compliment from the Cardinals. The Abbot Giuliani, who had been presented to the Pope by Cardinal Spada as Protector of the Affairs of the Swiss Catholick Cantons, has taken the Quality of their Agent, and has put up their Arms accordingly over his Door.

Venice, Dec. 1. On the 26th of last Month an Ordinance was published, forbidding the Transportation of any Species Gold or Silver of the Republick's Coin into the Levant without express Order from the Magistrates, under pain of Confiscation and other severe Penalties: And a Clause is added, whereby 'tis declared, that in case a Ship be cast away with such Money on board, those that have insured it shall have no Remedy at Law for such Insurance. The Armament of the Ships of War and Gallies at the Arsenal is carried on with extremum Diligence, and the two Ships newly built are so forward as to be fit to launch very suddenly. The Captains who are to command them are named, and the Troops drawn from the old Body which is in Terra Firma to be embarked upon them are marching hither. The three Gallies lately arrived from the Levant are found to be in better State than was expected, and in a Condition to put to Sea, so that when they are refitted they will again sail to the Levant after the Chiourmes are reinforced. A Felucca sent by a Captain in the Gulf of Cataro in Dalmatia, has brought Letters which confirm what has been formerly advised concerning the Turks disposing their Troops into Winter-Quarters, leaving only a Body to block up the Montenegrins. One of the Retrenchments of those People being attacked by the Turks, was so pressed that they demanded Quarter, which was granted to them by the Basha who commanded, but when they had submitted the Basha broke his Faith with them, and contrary to Promise given cut them all to Pieces, even Women and Children not excepted. This Piece of Cruelty so enraged the others whom the Basha afterwards attacked, that they defended themselves with such Courage that after a great Slaughter the Turks were obliged to retire. The same Basha made Complaints to the Republick of Ragusa, supposing they furnished the Montenegrins with Powder and other Ammunition, which made the Ragusans write to their Minister at Constantinople to justify themselves. It is some time since we received Letters from thence, which makes us believe the Gates are kept shut.
